

Psychologist, Private Practice

Ian Stapleton

Job Details

Contract – A$4,000 / week

Mount Eliza Victoria, Australia

Job Description

We are offering flexible hours and an excellent remuneration with an immediate start.

You get to work alongside a team of highly qualified and experienced colleagues in a busy established Private Practice.

Your opportunity

The practice has extensive wait lists and an established reputation.

Work from relaxing, purpose -built rooms or by telehealth as required.

High quality, experienced reception and administration is provided at no extra cost to you.

All tests and equipment are provided.

In-house professional development, training and peer support is available.

BAYSIDE PSYCHOLOGY

Was established in 1980. We specialise in family and relationship counselling, all areas of child and educational psychology, adult and child psychology, family therapy, forensic psychology and hypnotherapy. The practice is in a high visibility area surrounded by medical and Allied Health Services.

Position Requirements

A number of contractor positions are available with flexible hours.

You require AHPRA registration.

Relationship counselling experience would be helpful.

Suitable personal qualities such as approachability, friendliness and good communication skills are essential.

Application Details

Please email your CV and cover letter to Martine Jackson, Practice Manager at reception@baysidepsychology.com.au or enquiries please call 03 9787 5055 or visit our webpage at <https://www.baysidepsychology.com.au>